Train the Trainer

Louie Ludick has been in Communication Training for the past 16 years. He specializes in Skills training, Coaching and Motivational speaking. He has a passion for people, the development of individuals and teams.

Louie recently attained a total score of 6.73 on a scale of 7 as set by the MTN Academy Global. This is the highest score that any Business Trainer has ever achieved globally.

He has trained many corporate companies nationally and internationally in communicating more effectively which culminated in successful internal and external relationships. Because of this exposure he has trained different cultures and has the ability to connect with people on all levels.

Louie has facilitated Work-Flow for Corporations guiding them how to work internally in order to be more efficient towards their external clients.

He has also worked in different industries such as

- Financial
- Freight Forwarding
- Technology
- IT
- Retail and
- Hospitality

This has enabled him to have a broad knowledge of current business issues out there, and he is capable of facilitating you towards finding solutions for the current issues you are facing.
